MONUMENT MEETING.

An Important Meeting to be Held in Reford's Hall To-night.

This evening the Shenandoah Soldiers' Monument Association will meet again in Reford's hall, at 7:30 o'clock, pursuant to the adjournment taken at the meeting held two weeks ago. On that occasion a report by the finance committee was received and the committee given two weeks additional time to collect outstanding money and tickets. According to the accounts there is a fund of at least $1,000 in hand and there seems to be a strong sentiment in favor of pushing the project to completion. It is believed by many that during the winter arrangements can be made to have a monument ready for unveiling on next Memorial Day. It is urgently requested that the representatives of all organizations interested attend the meeting to-night.

Bickert's Cafe. Our free lunch to-night will be special. Vegetable soup to-morrow morning.

The Verticose. Ferguson's theatre was little short of being crowded last night when the vaudeville pictures of the Gilbert-Fleming's fight at Carson City, Nev., were exhibited. It was the largest assemblage of sporting men seen in this town in some time, although that element did not make up the entire audience. The exhibition was very satisfactory as a whole. Some of the views are not as distinct as they should be, yet it is possible for one to get a better idea of the contest from all the pictures than from the written accounts of it and the audience last night left the theatre satisfied.

High mass will be celebrated in the Annunciation church.

EXPLOSION VICTIM DIES

A Fatal Result of the Shenandoah City Colliery Accident.

THE SECOND SUFFERER CRITICAL.

Joseph Poff Died This Morning, His Condition Having Changed Suddenly Yesterday - His Father, the Other Victim, Has Also Suffered a Change For the Worst.

Joseph Poff, one of the victims of the explosion of mine gas in a breast of the Shenandoah City colliery on the morning of the 24th ult., died at the Miners' hospital at Fontaine Springs this morning, at eight o'clock. The indications are that the father of the young man, Peter Poff, Sr., who suffered in the same explosion, will also succumb. The fatal result was a surprise to the friends of the victim. For several days after the sufferers were taken to the hospital they remained in a precarious condition, but a change for the better set in and hopes of recovery became strong. Yesterday, however, there was a sudden change and the son commenced to sink rapidly last night.

The remains were sent to town this afternoon and removed to the family residence on North West street. The funeral arrangements will be announced to-morrow. Joseph Poff would have been 22 years of age on the 23rd of next month. He was an active and popular member of the St. Michael's Society.

Peter Poff, Sr., the other victim in the case is 32 years of age and it is probably his age and long service in the mines that makes his case worse, as he did not suffer as much from the explosion as his son did. The latter was injured internally. In answer to an inquiry this morning as to the father's condition, Dr. J. C. Hiddle, of the Miners' hospital, said that the patient seemed to be doing very well until yesterday, when a change for the worse set in and his condition became dangerous.

The explosion from which the men suffered took place while they were in an old breast searching for sheet iron. They found it and were digging the sheets from their old fastenings when the lamp of one of them, it is not known which, ignited the gas. At almost the same instant the father threw himself face-down in the breast, but the son tried to dash through the gas. It was for this reason that the son suffered the most. Both were badly burned on the head, face, hands and arms. The son was also burned on the back down to the waist. Much sympathy is expressed for the family of the victims.

Held for Assault. Mrs. Louise Burankus, of White street, last night appeared as complainant against Mrs. Michael Igo and her two daughters, Maggie and Katie. The case was heard before Justice Shoemaker and each of the defendants were held in $50 bail for trial at court.

The complainant alleged that she lives near the accused; that yesterday she found the youngest of Mrs. Igo's daughters in an empty coal shanty adjoining that owned by the complainant and the child was drawing coal through an opening in the partition. Mrs. Burankus also said she ordered the child away. The latter called for her mother and Mrs. Igo and another daughter appeared and assaulted the complainant. Mrs. Burankus produced a handful of hair which she said the defendants had pulled from her head.

BOSTONS THE WINNERS

Bean Eaters Capture the League Championship For 1897.

AN EXCITING GAME IN BROOKLYN

While the Men of the Hub Were Piling up Winning Runs in Brooklyn the Baltimoreans Were Being Defeated by the Washingtonians.

Brooklyn, Oct. 1.—Although Boston has one more game to play with Brooklyn and Baltimore will play two more with Washington at the Monumental City, the race for the League pennant of 1897 practically came to an end with the conclusion of yesterday's game at Eastern park. Boston won the game, while Washington trounced the champions, which leaves Boston the undisputed champion for 1897. Even should Baltimore win both games, they can only obtain a percentage of 700 points. Should Brooklyn win from Boston to-morrow the latter would still have a percentage of 704.

The excitement of yesterday's game was extraordinary. In the second inning, when the Boston scored five runs, which gave them a safe lead, men and women alike arose in their seats and yelled frantically. When the lead became so great that there was no more hope for the home team the most faithful fans of the Boston and their rooters, and for a time nobody could hear anything but people yelling "B-o-s-t-o-n."

Young Dunn was put in the box to fool the new champions, but Captain Griffin might as well have stood up a wooden man, as the faster Dunn tutted thump across the plate the runner. Captain Duffy's men could line the leather out. The one trouble was that the batting was all on one side. The home team could do but little with Klobedans, the Boston twirler. About the only time they hit him with any effect was in the third inning, when they scored all their runs.

The fielding, like the batting, too, was one sided. Brooklyn made only four actual errors, but then some of the players are guilty of some of the most stupid plays seen in many days. Boston's work in the field was simply marvelous. Nothing seemed too hard for them to get. Lowe and Long alone cut off four hits by their brilliant fielding. Score by innings:

Boston ..... 0 5 2 1 0 2 1 0 1-12

BALTIMOREANS CONTENTED. Announcement of Boston's Victory Received With Cheers at Pimlico.

Baltimore, Oct. 1.—The "ghost of a chance" that Baltimore had to win the pennant for next season vanished early in yesterday's game, when the senators fell upon Dr. Pond's curves, batted him out of the box, and took a good lead in the fourth inning, after which the oracles seemed to lose heart and played listlessly and without ambition. In the meantime the score board was showing how easily the Bostonians were showing their game away from Brooklyn, and the last vestige of hope slowly died out in the breasts of the handful of faithful rooters who still clung to the belief that Brooklyn might take one from the leaders and give the birds a chance to catch up by winning all four from the senators.

It is not saying too much to assert that the result is not altogether unwelcome in Baltimore, for the reason that it is generally admitted that Boston was proved to have the better club in the recent remarkable series played in Baltimore, and all lovers of the game, no matter what their prejudices, are content to see the trophy of the championship fall to the lot of the best team.

The outcome of both games was watched, however, with great interest, and wherever crowds gathered bulletins were read to them. In almost every instance the news that Boston had clinched it, and that the championship was no longer in doubt, was received with satisfaction, and in some cases with cheers. This was notably the case at Pimlico, where the result by innings was read during the trotting races in progress there. On Sunday morning the oracles will depart for Boston, with the hope that they may at least save the Temple cup, and gather in the lion's share of the gate receipts. Score by innings:

Washington ..... 2 0 1 2 4 0 0 0-9
Baltimore ..... 1 0 0 0 2 2 0 0-3
